

WHAT TO BRING

Like any other fly fishing excursion there are items you should bring with you, items of your own you might want to bring and items you shouldn't bring.

Items we recommend you bring:

- Foul Weather Clothing - a warm sweater and coat, rain gear, toque and gloves.
- Wading Sandals (protected toe style) - if the air and water temperature allow, waders get very hot.
- Polarized Sunglasses - reduce the glare off the water allowing you better visibility.
- Digital Camera - capture images of your Bow River fly fishing experience.
- A hat or cap - protection from the sun and sharp hooks being cast.
- Sportfishing License - you can purchase your Sportfishing License online prior to your arrival at www.albertarelm.com/licensing.page

Optional items you could bring (supplied unless you prefer to bring your own.):

- Fishing Rods and reels (5, 6 or 7 wt.) - leave your 2, 3 and 4 weight rods at home.
- Waders - chest high waders that can be folded down to the waist.
- Wading boots (non-studded) - snug fitting with extra laces. Studded wading boots are not allowed in our boats.
- Sun Screen Lotion - SPF 30 or higher.

Included in the price of your Bow River Hookers fly fishing trip:

- Your trip includes pick up and return to either your S.E. Calgary hotel/motel or a predetermined meeting place.
- Snacks and non-alcoholic beverages during the course of your Bow River fishing day.
- Unless otherwise specified, your Bow River fly fishing trip also includes a hearty mid-day lunch (excluded on half-day floats).
- All flies - your guide will be equipped with a wide variety of flies effective on the Bow River.
- Any extra fly fishing gear needed for your trip - extruded leaders, tippets, strike indicators, first aid kit, Advil, Tums, toilet paper, handi-wipes, etc.

Not included in the price of your Bow River Hookers fly fishing trip:

- Sportfishing License - If you do not have a License when your guide meets you, his first stop will be at a sporting outlet to allow you to obtain an Sportfishing License.
- A gratuity to the guide - gratuity standard is 10% of the trip fee. Your guide supplies and maintains all his own equipment; rods, reels, fly lines, flies, boat, vehicle, etc. Although not required, the gratuity is an indication of your level of satisfaction with his efforts on your Bow River fly fishing excursion.
